

Troop 21 Flagstaff Lake Eustis, ME

WHEN: Friday January 15, 2010 through Sunday January 17, 2010

WHERE: Flagstaff Lake, Eustis, ME-Hyde School Yurts

WHAT DO I NEED: Backpack, hiking boots, daypack, cold weather equipment, and all necessary outdoor gear. Troop will be day packing and perfecting winter skills. Boys should be prepared for any weather and cold temperatures. Boys will have a pack inspection to ensure boys have "the right stuff". If there is snow, we'll be trying out snowshoes. Troop has snowshoes, but it's always helpful if you bring your own if you have them. We always need drivers. We will be hiking on flat ground from the vehicles to the Yurts, so pack like it's a hiking trip (i.e., no loose gear).

DEPART: American Legion at 4:00 p.m. on Friday Night and return by Noon on Sunday.

AGENDA: Friday night, setup camp in Yurts (Mongolian shelters). We will do a community service project Saturday morning, which will most likely be trail clearing, and possibly hike part of Cranberry Mountain (which is part of the Bigelow Mountain range). Then return Sunday by noon.

COST: $10.00 per participant will include all meals (Saturday breakfast through Sunday breakfast). Eustis is about 2 ½ - 3 hours of driving from Bath. Boys will need a bag dinner on Friday.

Pack Inspection: I understand there will be a pack inspection on December 1st for all boys going on the trip and my son will not be able to attend if he does not bring his pack.

Slip Due on December 22nd at the start of the meeting. NO EXCEPTIONS.
Karen Valentine at 841-1925 is the emergency contact for the Troop.
